WATERVILLE SENTINEL (ME) 29 March 1984

Ex-agent tells of torture. lies and chaos

By JOHN NELANDER

Dirty tricks by the Central Intelligence Agency have toppled govern-ments and influenced American presidential elections, a former CIA agent said Wednesday.

Speaking to students and reporters at Colby College, John Stockwell ran down some sensational allegations:

 In South America, CIA agents schooled Latin American police officers in the art of interrogation, which included torture. In training, "they. took beggars off the streets to use as guinea pigs,' Stockwell said.

But they had thing to tell nothing, to their interroga-"All they could do is writhe

"It isn't just Gestapo maniacs who do these things. It's anyone of any nationality," he said. Pigs invasion of Cuba, the CIA empromote economic chaos, agents burned sugar crops, spread diseases among livestock and placed double bombs in department stores.

"People are crawling in the rubble to get the people out and. BOOM! another bomb goes off nice-guy stuff like that."

• During the 1980 presidential campaign, the agency "bailed out on Jimmy Carter and started feeding information to Ronald Reagan. The CIA very much wanted Reagan to win."

Washington insiders believe that bail-out led to the Carter briefing paper debate reported by the news media last year, Stockwell said.

No one has turned up documented proof that the CIA was involved, but many journalists and government officials suspect it. "That's why that thing is so explosive."

Stockwell is the author of, "In Search of Enean . account of his CLA career from 1964 away leads the world through 1977. when he became fed up with the dirty tricks employed by the agency.

A Texas native and former Marine officer, language of the operation."

For six years he was in Africa organizing spy networks. He said at

The CIA far and

 After the unsuccessful Bay of Swckwell was recruited by the CIA: while he was working for a rubberbarked on a seven-year binge of de company in Colorado. He spent six stabalization, Stockwell said. To months in "spy school" to "learn the

Continuen